Date: March 21, 2005

Comments: We request these changes be made to the Student Government Association Code of Laws, Title VI, 502.4.

Let Title VI, 502.4 now read:

- 502.4 The SGA President and Administrative Vice President will conduct at least two mandatory campaign meetings prior to the week set for formal campaigning.
- A. All candidates are required to attend at least one of the mandatory meetings.
 - B. The purpose of the meetings will be to inform candidates of all campaign guidelines and to announce the official time line for elections, debates, and formal campaigning.
 - C. If candidates do not attend a campaign meeting they will not be allowed to participate in the election, unless they have extenuating circumstances and have been granted special permission by the Director of Student Life, the SGA President, and the Administrative Vice President to miss the meetings.
