

CURRICULUM VITA

Virginia "Lee" Anthony Bare
Email: vbare@montevallo.edu

Education:

Doctor of Philosophy, Major: Clinical Psychology- Child track; Dissertation: Examining friendship and empathy in early adolescents' responses to teasing. University of Alabama, August 2006.

Master of Arts, Major: Clinical Psychology; Thesis: Audience members' reactions to episodes of teasing. Western Carolina University, August 2000.

Bachelor of Arts, Major: German; Davidson College, May 1996.

Clinical Experience:

Psychologist, Bare and Bare, PC, Birmingham, AL. March 2012-present.

Started independent private practice to provide comprehensive psychological assessments of children and adolescents. Evaluations include ADHD evaluations, psychoeducational evaluations, and emotional and behavioral assessments. Provide disability evaluations for the office of Disability Determination Services as an independent contractor.

Psychologist, Grayson and Associates, Birmingham, AL. February 2011-December 2011.

Functioned as an independent psychologist in a large group psychology practice. Conducted psychological evaluations and individual therapy for children, adolescents, and adults. Consulted with psychiatrists for case management. Participated in NBC13 news phone panel on bullying.

Psychologist, Shelby Psychological Services, Pelham, AL. June 2009-February 2010.

Worked as a part-time psychologist in small group practice, including two psychologists, an LPC, a psychiatrist, and a nurse practitioner. Conducted psychological evaluations and individual therapy for children, adolescents, and adults.

Pediatric Psychology Predoctoral Internship, Duke University Medical Center, Durham, NC. July 2004-June 2005.

Conducted evaluations for pediatric psychology service, supervised graduate students, provided feedback and consultation to schools. Conducted family therapy and participated in multidisciplinary observation/feedback team to other therapists. Conducted individual therapy to children with anxiety and/or behavior problems. Conducted evaluations for ADHD clinic and provided feedback to clients and families.

CAP Grant Therapist, Cherokee Health Systems, Knoxville, TN. July 2002 – August 2003.

Worked as therapist in primary medical care setting. Participated in behavioral consultations with primary care providers, conducted individual therapy sessions, collected data to determine grant program effectiveness, obtained weekly individual supervision.

Advanced Clinical Placement, Brewer-Porch Children's Center – Short Term Treatment and Evaluation Program, Tuscaloosa, AL. August 2001 – May 2002.

Worked with an interdisciplinary team on a short-term residential treatment unit. Conducted evaluations and assisted with group therapy sessions. Conducted individual therapy with a client in the Day Treatment Program. Obtained weekly supervision.

ADHD Clinic, Capstone Medical Center, Tuscaloosa, AL. August 2001 – December 2001.

As part of the Advanced Child Practicum, worked with a pediatrician in a diagnostic and treatment clinic for children with ADHD. Conducted parent interviews and wrote diagnostic reports incorporating interview data, parent checklists, achievement and intellectual screening, and physical exam data. Conducted follow-up interviews to monitor the child's functioning at home and at school.

High Risk Clinic, Capstone Medical Center, Tuscaloosa, AL. June 2001 – August 2001.

As part of the Advanced Child Practicum, worked with a pediatrician in a multidisciplinary clinic that follows high risk children from birth to age five years. Met with families to answer developmental questions, including behavior management, sleep disturbance, and sibling rivalry problems. Also performed brief support to parents who were not receiving support elsewhere.

Advanced Child Practicum, University of Alabama Psychology Clinic, Tuscaloosa, AL. June 2001 – December 2001.

Conducted individual psychotherapy with child clients as well as participated in a diagnostic and consultation clinic. Obtained weekly supervision in individual and group meetings.

Basic Psychotherapy Practicum, University of Alabama Psychology Clinic, Tuscaloosa, AL. August 2000 – May 2001.

Conducted individual psychotherapy with adult and child clients, conducted intake interviews bi-weekly. Obtained weekly supervision in individual and group meetings.

Masters' Level Internship, Foothills Correctional Institution, Morganton, NC. January 2000-July 2000.

Provided individual therapy for inmates, led Anger Management group, co-facilitated Depression group and Stress Management group, assisted in psychiatric clinic, conducted assessments.

Assessment Practicum, Blue Ridge Center, Child and Family Services, Asheville, NC. January 1999-May 1999.

Conducted psychological evaluations on children, adolescents, and adults. Evaluations included the administration, scoring, and interpretation of various assessment instruments, as well as report writing.

Teaching Experience:

Assistant Professor of Psychology, University of Montevallo, Montevallo, AL. August 2014-present.

Responsible for teaching four classes per semester including Foundations in Psychology, Psychopathology, and Clinical Techniques. Develop syllabi, prepare and administer lectures, develop/administer/score exams. Advising students and participating in faculty meetings and committee activities.

Temporary Full-Time Adjunct Faculty, University of Montevallo, Montevallo, AL. August 2013-May 2014.

Taught four classes fall and spring semester, including Foundations in Psychology, Psychological Testing, Psychopathology, and Health Psychology. Responsibilities include developing syllabi, preparing and administering lectures, developing/administering/scoring exams, advising students, and participating in faculty meetings and activities.

Adjunct Instructor, Jefferson State Community College, Birmingham, AL. January 2013-May 2013.

Taught two sections of introductory psychology, including developing syllabus, preparing and administering lectures, and developing/administering/scoring exams. Additionally, taught a section of a dual enrollment class at Oak Mountain High School with similar responsibilities.

Adjunct Instructor, Jefferson State Community College, Birmingham, AL. August 2012-December 2012.

Taught an advanced level psychology class, Human Growth and Development, including developing syllabus, preparing and administering lectures, developing/administering/scoring exams.

Adjunct Instructor, Jefferson State Community College, Birmingham, AL, February 2010-December 2010.

Took over an introductory psychology, including developing syllabus, preparing and administering lectures, developing/administering/scoring exams.

Adjunct Instructor, Pellissippi State Technical Community College, Knoxville, TN, August 2002—December 2002.

Taught two sections of introductory psychology classes, including developing exams, preparing and administering lectures, and maintaining weekly office hours.

Graduate Teaching Instructor, University of Alabama, January 2002 – May 2002.

As part of the doctoral training curriculum, taught introductory psychology class, including developing the syllabus and exams, preparing and administering lectures, and attending weekly teaching seminars with supervisor and other graduate students teaching.

Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Alabama, August 2000 – May 2001.

Taught undergraduate lab in experimental research methods and writing.

Assessment Teaching Assistant, Western Carolina University, August 1999 - December 1999.

Selected to supervise first year graduate students in the administration of intellectual and achievement tests. Duties included supervising scoring and assisting in report writing for first year assessment course.

Presentations and Publications:

Bare, L. A. (2012) Willpower: Helping clients help themselves. Workshop presented to the Birmingham Regional Association of Licensed Psychologists, Birmingham, AL.

Bare, L. A. (2011). Gimme your lunch money: Current trends in teasing and bullying research and intervention. Workshop presented at the annual meeting of the Alabama Psychological Association, Orange Beach, AL.

Salekin, R. T., Ziegler, T. A., Larrea, M. A., Anthony, V. L., & Bennett, A. (2003). Predicting dangerousness with two Millon Adolescent Clinical Inventory psychopathy scales: The importance of egocentric and callous traits. Journal of Personality Assessment, 80, 154-163.

Salekin, R. T., Bennett, A., & Anthony, V. L. (2002, March). Prediction of dangerousness with the MACI psychopathy scale: The importance of egocentric and callous traits. Paper presented at the American Psychology-Law Society in Austin, Texas.

Anthony, V. L. & Kowalski, R. M. (2000, March). Audience Members' Reactions to Teasing. Poster Session presented at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association, New Orleans, LA.

Professional and Honor Societies:

Psi Chi National Psychology Honor Society

Delta Phi Alpha National German Honor Society

Southeastern Psychological Association (Student Affiliate, 1998-2000)

American Psychological Association (Student Affiliate, 1998-2006; Member, 2009-2010, 2012-present)

Alabama Psychological Association (Member, 2009-present; Executive Council, 2010-2012; Continuing Education Chair, 2011-2012)

Birmingham Regional Association of Licensed Psychologists (Member, 2009-present; President, 2010-2012)

Licensed Clinical Psychologist in Alabama #1517

References:

Available by request