

Policy 02:100 – Group Activities, Continuing Education, and International Services

Procedures regulating group activities—including the activities of internal or external groups on campus; programs of continuing education; and international services, including arrangements for international students and visitors from abroad and members of the campus community traveling abroad—are formulated by appropriate administrative offices as determined from time to time by the President. Procedures formulated by these administrative offices are subject to approval by the President and can be obtained from the respective administrative offices or from the Office of the President.
