1	The professors of the courses are a huge strength of the program. Each one has a different teaching style and emphasis in the courses they teach. I felt in every course that the professor was as invested in my growth and success as I was/am. Another strength is the building of content. I could see that the skills/content I learned in my first class was continuously being built upon and strengthened as I moved through the other courses. A huge strength is the online format and limited number of class meetings to meet the needs of flexibility.	10/30/2020 12:18 PM
