MINORITY EDUCATORS SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

The shortage of minority teachers in Alabama and across the nation has been linked to multiple educational, social, and economic issues. The University of Montevallo College of Education and Human Development recognizes this shortage and has designed the Minority Educators Scholarship Program, which is a collaborative program for students of color, to increase the number of minority students completing teacher education and instructional leadership programs in the state. Students who meet the scholarship eligibility requirements will be identified, recruited, and prepared for rural, suburban, and urban teaching, leadership, and administrative careers. This scholarship supports four years total, only two years of which are allowed in the Alternative Masters, Teacher Leadership, or Instructional Leadership degree programs.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

1. U.S. citizenship and “permanent resident” status.
2. Alabama resident status.
3. Identify as African-American, Asian-American, Hispanic-American, or Native-American.
4. Minimum ACT score of 20 or SAT score of 950 for undergraduates
5. Compliance with University admission guidelines.
6. Minimum grade point average of 2.50 earned in high school for undergraduates or 2.75 in college work for graduates.
