

COUNSELING MASTER'S

The Counseling Master's Program at the University of Montevallo is for those who have earned a bachelor's degree or higher and wish to pursue a career in the mental health field.

UM's counseling tracks include preparations for careers in Clinical Mental Health Counseling settings, Couples and Family Counseling, and School Counseling.

All tracks are accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling Related Educational Programs (CACREP), meet the academic requirements for Alabama's LPC credential and individuals who choose Couples and Family Counseling are eligible to pursue the Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist (LMFT) license.
