

Complete this form and submit all required documents in a manila envelope with your name on the front to Teacher Education Services, Wills 203, OR email to Christi Ellison at celliso6@montevallo.edu by April 15 for Fall semester and November 15 for Spring semester. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.

I. Student Information

Name:
Student M Number:
UM Email Address:
Current Address:
Phone:
Teaching Field:
Overall GPA:
Faculty Advisor:

II. Personal Statement: Include a personal statement (typed; 150 words or less) to explain the questions below. Do not include your name on the document. Do not staple the pages.

1. Why you are a good candidate for this scholarship?
2. What are your future personal, career, and educational goals?

III. Essay: Include an essay (typed; 500 words or less) in which you answer ONE of the questions below. Do not include your name on the document. Do not staple the pages.

1. Social Media is present in most areas of our lives. Is there a place for it in our classrooms and how could it be incorporated?
2. Virtual learning is becoming more prevalent both in higher education and in P-12. In your opinion, can online education be equaled to the classroom educational experience?
3. What trends are you noticing in education and how will these trends affect you as a teacher?
4. Discuss the role of education in personal development.
5. From kindergarten to twelfth grade, high-stakes testing is used to measure the knowledge a person has acquired. What are the advantages and/or disadvantages of high-stakes tests in the P-12 setting?

IV: Letters of Recommendation: Two letters of recommendation are required. One should be from a CEHD professor. These may be emailed to Christi Ellison at celliso6@montevallo.edu.

College of Education and Human Development
Teacher Education Services
TES Scholarship

The TES Scholarship covers 3-hours within your program. For Undergraduate interns, this will be 3-hours within your internship. For Alternative A interns, this will be the 3-hour internship. The scholarship does not include fees or books.

Eligibility:

- Admitted and registered for the upcoming semester.
- Have an institutional GPA of 3.0 or higher for undergraduates or a 3.5 or higher for Alt A students.
- Maintain enrollment during the eligible semester. Students who drop or withdraw will be required to repay funds to UM.
- Interns must meet all internship requirements before applying.

Deadlines: Application deadlines are April 15 for the Fall semester and November 15 for the Spring semester. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.

Award: Total scholarship funds will differ from semester to semester so the number of awarded scholarships will vary from term to term. The decision of the Scholarship Selection Committee is final. Scholarships will be awarded by March 1 for Fall and December 1 for Spring.