Your graduation application has been submitted! To view your current graduation application, click "View Graduation Application" under "Student Records" in Banner Self Service. Please note the following:

- Responsibility for meeting all graduation requirements rests with the student. By submitting your graduation application, you acknowledge that you have reviewed your degree audit in CAPP and understand your graduation eligibility.
- Consult with your academic advisor regarding any remaining requirements for graduation & check your UM email account often for important information from the Registrar's Office, Student Affairs, the Senior Class President, and others on campus.
- Your diploma will not be released if you have any unmet degree requirements and/or outstanding financial obligations to the University.
- If you have any incomplete grades at the time of graduation, then your desired graduation term will be updated to the subsequent term. You will not receive your diploma until the next degree conferral date after all incompletes have been resolved.
- All teacher education students, graduating or completing a certification program, should apply for certification with the office of Teacher Education Services.
