

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE Spring 2026

Spring: The final exam schedule is based on regularly scheduled class meeting times. All course syllabi must include the scheduled date and time for final exams.

- Hybrid courses' final exam times will correlate to the class's on-campus meetings.
- Distance Education option (Synchronous) courses' final exam times will correlate to schedule class times.
- Fully Online (Synchronous) courses' final exam times will correlate to schedule class times.
- Fully Online (Asynchronous) classes consult the course syllabus or instructor.
- Classes schedule at any time other than shown below - consult the course syllabus or instructor.

Petitioning to Reschedule a Final Exam

- Students may petition to their major College Dean to reschedule exams if the following circumstances occur:
 - A student has 3 or more exams scheduled on the same day.
 - A student has 2 exams scheduled at the same time.
- Students wishing to reschedule one or more final exams due to one of the reasons above must submit to their major College Dean documentation of their schedule.
- The petition must be approved no later than the last regular day of classes. The rescheduled exam must be administered during one of the provisional exam times as listed in the schedule below.
- Exams for on campus courses have higher priority than online exams regardless of level.
- For all instances not covered above, the student's major College Dean will consult with professors/instructors and decide which final should be rescheduled.
