

Student Resources

Information and internet links providing financial and disability resources for students and families.

Alabama Department of Rehabilitation Services

State agency that provides services to children and adults with disabilities in homes, schools, the workplace, and the community, with a mission to assist every person in achieving his or her maximum potential.

Student with Disabilities Preparing for Postsecondary Education: Know your Rights and Responsibilities

A brochure published by the Office of Civil Rights.

Learning Ally \(formerly Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic\)

Access to the nation's largest audio-book library of textbooks and literature titles.

Bookshare

Online library that makes print material available in downloadable digital text formats.

Project Gutenberg

Free e-books

DO-IT – Washington University-Disabilities, Opportunities, Internetworking and Technology

DO-IT center promotes the success of individuals with disabilities and the use of computer and networking technologies.

ETS-Educational Testing Services

Resources regarding Praxis and GRE accommodations for test takers with disabilities.

Fin-Aid – The Smart Student Guide to Financial Aid

A free public service website that provides information about financial aid, scholarships and fellowships for students with disabilities.